About the Exhibition

Now celebrating 10 years, “Portrait of Paterson” is a traveling exhibit by young photographers in the Paterson Youth Photography Project (PYPP). More than 40 color prints by photographers, ages 9 to 14, are on view in the Broadway & LRC Galleries from July 10 through September 15, 2012.

The mission of the Paterson Youth Photography Project (PYPP) is to enrich the lives of school age children in Paterson by introducing them to photography as a means for personal growth. The goal of PYPP is to teach photography to school age children in Paterson – in a classroom, in the field, and as part of an organized mentoring program. (continued)

By mastering both artistic and technical skills, children gain self-confidence, recognition for their talents, marketable skills, and a sense of hope for their futures. By learning from adult mentors, they gain one – on – one attention and positive role models.

To volunteer or enroll a child in the PYPP program, contact founder and director Gwenn Levine at info@pypp.org .
