About the Exhibition

The Passaic County Cultural and Heritage Council at Passaic County Community College is pleased to present Paterson: An Altered Reality, an exhibition of mixed media drawings by Paterson artist Marcos Salazar.

Of Dominican heritage, Marcos Salazar was born in the Bronx, New York, in 1993 and moved to Paterson, New Jersey, in 2011. As a young artist, he is constantly exploring the world around him. Working predominately in pen and ink, Salazar finds an unlimited source of inspiration in the people, places, architecture, and monuments of the City of Paterson.

He often takes photographs of the places that interest him and uses the images as reference for his artworks. From a sketch, the artist's imagination and emotions take over to create his "altered reality." Examples of Salazar's unique vision, on view in the exhibition, are Silent Comedies from his series Fables of the Fabian and Town Line.

Marcos Salazar is currently a Graphic Design student at Passaic County Community College. He has shown his work in various area exhibitions. To see more of his work, visit his website at www.marcos0043.weebly.com.

For additional information about this show or other exhibitions at PCCC, contact Jane Haw, Gallery Curator, at (973) 684-5448 or visit our website at www.pccc.edu/art/gallery.
