

Frame by Frame: Photographs of Paterson, New Jersey

by Mark Hillringhouse

See the Silk City through a new perspective and enjoy the artistic vision of one of New Jersey's finest photographers.

Paterson Great Falls by Mark Hillringhouse

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

11:45 am – 1:00 pm

Passaic County Community College

Hamilton Club 32 Church St.

Paterson NJ

Free Admission

Mark Hillringhouse is a poet, essayist and photographer whose work has been widely exhibited in area galleries. The City of Paterson has long been a rich source of inspiration for his photographs. He writes that his images “explore the haunting beauty of an industrial past, the city’s mills and factories, against the backdrop of the city’s vibrant street life as juxtaposed against the timeless forces of the Passaic River, the Great Falls, and Garret Mountain.”

