“WHAT HAPPENS AFTER SHE LEAVES?”

A real conversation about the long term health and economic consequences of DOMESTIC VIOLENCE impacting our women and children today

Thursday, September 24, 2015 from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM (EDT)
Passaic County Community College THEATER
203 Ellison Street • Paterson, New Jersey

Doors open at 6:30pm
Admission and parking (in lot #2) are FREE
Garage parking for a fee is located at 225 Broadway.
RSVP to 201.849.3000

The public can’t protest what it doesn’t know!

This event will be filmed courtesy of Producer/Director Chris Henze, and livestreamed courtesy of the Passaic County Community College Media Department.

Event Details
Opening remarks made by CAROL MARAJ, mother to hip hop singer and songwriting sensation NICKI MINAJ. Panel conversation moderated by WCBS news reporter LEVON PUTNEY.

Panel guests include:

Richard Pompelio, Esq.
Richard Pompelio is a nationally recognized leader in the area of crime victim legal assistance. He has represented over 10,000 crime victims in his career and has been recognized as the premier crime victims’ lawyer in the State of New Jersey for over two decades. He is the founder of the New Jersey Crime Victims Law Center, which is dedicated to the pro bono representation of crime victims in the criminal justice system.

Lundy Bancroft
Lundy Bancroft is an internationally recognized domestic violence author, expert, speaker and playwright. He has twenty-five years of experience specializing in interventions for abusive men and their families. He has authored five books in the field, including the U.S.’s best-selling book on domestic violence; Why Does He Do That? and the national prizewinner The Batterer as Parent.

Barry Goldstein
Barry Goldstein is a nationally recognized domestic violence author, speaker, and advocate. Barry is the author of some of the leading books about domestic violence and custody, and presently serves as Director of Research for the Stop Abuse Campaign.

Patrice Lenowitz
Patrice Lenowitz is a domestic violence survivor, victim rights advocate, activist, and playwright. She is the founder of The Nurtured Parent Support Group for Survivors of Domestic Abuse, co-founder of the Children’s Justice Campaign, and a domestic violence and human trafficking community educator at the Center for Hope & Safety.

Sponsored by:

THE CAROL MARAJ FOUNDATION